

References For Prophetic Words 2021

The following are links to a range of prophetic words for 2021 shared by prophetic councils, ministries and prophetic ministers in the nations which you may find of interest. They represent a broad spectrum of different church and theological backgrounds which have their own distinctive prophetic style and expression which would at times differ from our own. Heartcry does not know them all personally, nor would we necessarily share all of their theological or prophetic perspectives, but we take the view that it is good to read widely, glean from the wisdom of the Body of Christ in the nations, and then ask God for clarity, insight and confirmation. As with all prophetic words, we encourage you to weigh them yourself, exercise discernment and test them, always using the Bible as our principal standard and plumb line.
